

Kaos E derra

The background is a dark, mottled teal or blue-green color with a grainy, textured appearance. In the center, there are several dark silhouettes of people standing in a line, facing forward. On the right side of the image, there is a prominent, jagged, vertical line that looks like a tear in paper or a crack in a surface, running from the top right towards the bottom. The overall mood is mysterious and somber.

The Flood

Lyrics: Luna Alva

Music: Senef, Marco Madrigal

There's a flood in my heart and it takes my breath away Monsters out from the shadows are like a rope to my neck
I swim, i run, but my legs refuse to move
The world keeps spinning and watches me drown in pain

If i could disappear
Into nothingness
I would feel no pain
But life doesn't leave me
It keeps coming back
And making my heart beat

Constantly drowning within myself
Waves of emotions that make me lose my head
We live in a stream of uncertainty
World can't escape from the madness that keeps us enslaved

I keep wishing for a light, something real to stay afloat
But the earth beneath my feet is unstable and i fall Falling into a wild ocean that brings me up and down
My lungs constricted with despair and my eyes can't see

Constantly drowning within myself
Waves of emotions that make me lose my head
We live in a stream of uncertainty
World can't escape from the madness that keeps us enslaved

Suddenly the dream is over and i free myself from restraints I look around, the world hasn't stopped but the storm is over
The horizon seems promising while the sun bathes the earth
But the scars on my body remain, deep and soar

If i could disappear
Into nothingness
I would feel no pain
But life doesn't leave me
It keeps coming back
And making my heart beat

Constantly drowning within myself
Waves of emotions that make me lose my head
We live in a stream of uncertainty
World can't escape from the madness that keeps us...

Now we are facing our ego-self
Finding a way to the surface of this hell
Look at the mirror confront your pain
World might escape, tho the change lies within your hands

Fire in the Sky

Lyrics: Senef

Music: Senef, Marco Madrigal

The stage is set
There is no way to fight against this power
Too many masks to hide the true slaughter
No one can tell whose is the face behind them

No one to blame
The greatest danger is to judge against your Inner self when the truth is blind
And you keep paddling while hands are tied

Yet straight ahead
If you can manage to remain in silence
There lies a voice across the endless darkness
Showing the way to reach the soulless laughter

An empty room
Can always hide behind a veil of lies
An answer to the timeless rimes
A witness to the crimes

You've always been trying
To find who's the liar Instead to face all those

Setting fire to the sky
Is the way they keep fear
On the people who rather think
Freely moving on forward
Questioning all they don't see fit the world

To seize control - against your voice
Has always been - for them a gift
The easy way - to lock the truth
The perfect scheme

To spit your face - oh funny thing
To chain your will - keep reason thin
To set the rules - convenient screen
For them to lead

We're closer than ever
To gather the courage
So we can face all those

Setting fire to the sky
Is the way they keep fear
On the people who rather think
Freely moving on forward
Questioning all they don't see fit the world

Watch the fire in the sky
Is always a nightmare
But we must stand brave so
We learn how to fight it back
And soon we'll be finding a way to extinguish
All that fire in the sky
And tend all the wounds Might be hard but we'll soon be Learning to live with scars
Remembering how weak we were in the past

Thunderstorm

Lyrics: David Magaña

Music: Senef, Marco Madrigal

Late for despair, not a prayer
Burn the vision time is here
Revelations, running wild
Who's the bringer of this thunderstorm

Mountains raising, oceans boil
Crashing clouds, dreadful coil
End of days, wisdom lost
Life stands shattered by the thunderstorm

People shouting senseless speech
Acid rain, toxic waste, fragile earth
A painting glow in the skies seals the sense
Victims, you're the cause
Plague upon the world

You must take what you can get
Starving, helpless, innocent
Holocaustal prophecies
Victims of the poisoned minds of fools

People shouting senseless speech
Acid rain, toxic waste, fragile earth
A painting glow in the skies seals the sense
Victims, you're the cause
Plague upon the world

Voices calling dictating what to believe
Guidelines, opinions telling you how you should feel

You must take what you can get
Starving, helpless, innocent
Holocaustal prophecies
Victims of the poisoned minds of fools

Voices calling dictating what to believe
Guidelines, opinions telling you what you should feel

Crimson Prelude

Lyrics: Senef

Music: Senef, Marco Madrigal

Once i had a dream about success
Once i had a dream about happiness
Once i had a dream, it was about love
Once i thought it all could be alright

The Visitors

Lyrics: Senef

Music: Senef, Marco Madrigal

(State 1 Unconsciousness)

Walk within a mind wide shut
Is even worse than blind
Is to head away
To hide from reality itself

Run into a spiral
Of unconsciousness
Might keep safe
Your own stupidity

Get close my friend
Look, it's our hope over there

(State 2 Hope)

Up there, is descending from the heavens Something you could never be Something from another world
And ready to be cheered by thee

Right here is convincing everybody
Not to think but to believe Never doubting, never questioning Surrendered to its will

And here we are ready to follow - Premade idols
Eager to have something else to believe - False gods

It's not what we were looking around
But surely feels better like this Look away, don't hesitate,
Erase the doubts, embrace the chills

Smile and if you ever feel depressed
Remember you should never think
Run away, admit your fail,
Be miserable to cleanse your sins

Ain't this supposed to be salvation? - Premade idols
How could they ask you to suffer like this? - False gods

(State 3 Reality)

Bend your knee to silence your will means nothing
It was you who chose to obey the meaningless voices ahead

Prey, ask them to show you how long the distance
From earth to hell takes a step, have never been places away

They are all the same, may come from heaven,
May come from a distant star, are heroes made in your mind

El camino de regreso

es silencioso es oscuro es triste
es doloroso es solitario es inevitable

Asegúrate de regresar con la frente en alto

Stop Spinning

Lyrics: Senef

Music: Senef, Marco Madrigal

Suddenly the dreams turned into nightmares
Success was just a plot
Happiness evolved into just a bunch of lies
Love into hypocrisy

Nowhere to run, nowhere to hide
Not a single sign of light into the night

The easy answer seemed to look around
Hoping to find sweetness in the gall
A false beacon in the darkest night but only Hellish fiends were to be found

Now there's nothing left to fight for, i have given up Now there's nothing more to live, my days are over The gods have turned their back to me, it's all just Turn around and walk away

I wish the world could simply stop spinning

Dark and loud

Lyrics: Senef

Music: Senef, Marco Madrigal

"Kind of exhausted, have given up, there's not a single thing i hold dear where am i going, where do i belong it's all too dark and loud around me"

El Camino de Regreso

Lyrics: Senef, Marco Madrigal

Music: Senef, Marco Madrigal

(1st movement – the desolation)

As cold as morning comes
So close from heavens call
As dark as winter's mourn
The summer still belongs

To every shape that fades
Our crimson cold remains
Our memories set apart

Are brought to break the glass
I'll fight it back, ignore the pain
That feeling grows once again
To step aside but never lay

From feelings hard to embrace
From killing thoughts we should pray
From time to time just run away

To reach the stars, to keep it loud
To face the end, and never cry
You'll never know the final step
Left back to crawl might be ahead

To weep again for something real
Not wrong or right but pure and bright
Not yours or mine but everyone's
Not body or mind but soul's spark

(2nd movement – the inherited chaos)

Don't turn around don't lose the calm
Believe it's there
Keep sharp your sight keep sure your hear
Just raise your fist

It's miles around, the tears the screams
One final breath
Something falls down, but not the hopes
We're thousands here

We're awake, nothing's broken now
Not the strength at least
Come, get closer, join the force, unite
Lift your heart and help your brothers out
Help them see the light

Just black or white no grey between It's how it feels
No calm no truce, no time to lose
The blood will spill

Don't fall in grief but you may feel relief
I know you tried
It's time to leave, please remember me
I'll be gone but there is a new dawn
Make my pass worthy

(3rd movement – the grief)

INSTRUMENTAL

Denial - Anger - Depression
Bargaining - Acceptance

(4th movement – el porvenir)

Cuando miro a lo lejos
Las montañas enmarcan el sol
Es la tierra de mis abuelos
Mi legado allá donde voy

Y yo sé que te veré
Es mi verdad y mi paz

Es el canto del jaguar
Que nos llama a la unidad
La memoria de los muertos es mi valor
En el cielo carmesí
Miro al águila volar
El espíritu guerrero - ¡En casa estoy!

Cuando cierro los ojos
Y respiro la brisa del mar
Lo que escuché en el viento
Es el canto a la libertad

Es el canto del jaguar
Que nos llama a la unidad
La memoria de los muertos es mi valor
En el cielo carmesí
Miro al águila volar
El espíritu guerrero - ¡En casa estoy!

Y yo sé que te veré
Es mi verdad y mi paz

Son las voces de los muertos
Se despiden con valor
Me recuerdan al oído - ¡En casa estoy!
Su memoria llevaremos
Más allá de la eternidad
No hay nada que nos pueda derrumbar

(5th movement - Finale)

Unsolving mysteries
From our existence is the key
To find the middle point
Between our love and rage

Co-existing as one
That is life
No more than that

Eternal struggle
Rejoice and passion
The beauty of it all

Our lives will go on!!!

Calm After the Storm

by Luna Alva

I stared into the Abyss long enough to be seduced
I walked into the storm, my tears mixing up with the rain

I kept going down

Farther down and deeper where darkness and nothingness collide
My footsteps heavy, sinking to my knees until I was dragging my soul

I kept sinking

My footsteps in the mud

A heart stained with grim thoughts and dire hopes

A light broke through.

The dim clouds parted angrily before my eyes

Warm, so warm and gentle against my wet tears

Among the mud, the stains, and the loss, I found hope

My broken wings parted like arms reaching for the light

I left my footsteps behind and flew towards freedom

Peace and quiet as I soar the skies.

Novum Aurora

Lyrics: Senef

Music: Senef, Marco Madrigal

Crawling off this wasted shell
I don't want it anymore
If the best is yet to come
I shall wait at the grey docks

Looking forward for a new reality
Where dreams should only be good to dream
No more bad omens, not a single word
To foretold anguish or disease

I'll discard this dying shell
For the new light has arrived
If the rapture has begun
I'm the scion of a new dawn

Angels from the past long ago forsaken Replaced for modernity
To bury the shouting scream to yourself
At the mirror of selfish decay

Crawling off this wasted shell
I don't want it anymore
If the best is yet to come
I shall wait at the grey docks
Let's get rid of all the scars
'cause the new dawn is at hand
Should embrace ourselves renewed
Since we're walking the road back

*El Universo sabe que esta producción ha sido una enorme labor, desde su concepción hasta el día de hoy, sin embargo todo vale la pena por el mensaje que pretende compartir con el mundo entero: "no al suicidio, no estás solo, juntos somos invencibles".
Juntos como especie, juntos como nación, juntos como familia...*

Quiero dedicar El camino de Regreso especialmente a todas las vidas que se perdieron en el terremoto del 19 de septiembre del 2017, pues ese día, por ese suceso, nació este proyecto. Terminé de dar forma a una serie de imágenes que tenía en mi cabeza hace años, conocí a Marco, con quien trabajé de forma increíble toda la música, por conocidos suyos conocí a Samantha, quien terminó de dar voz a esa idea, y una serie más de acontecimientos sin los cuales esta obra jamás hubiera visto la luz el día de hoy.

Gracias infinitas a toda mi familia y amigos, que siempre han confiado en mí y me han apoyado, y especialmente a todos los que nunca han terminado de creer en mí e incluso han cuestionado hasta mis decisiones de vida, pues por ellos es mayor la flama de la voluntad.

El camino de regreso es sin duda incierto, complicado, y puede llegar a ser doloroso, pero juntos podemos recorrerlo sin mirar atrás.
